

This new ruling prevents the non-profit and the not-for-profit communities from corresponding with the membership regarding products and services available to them without first receiving permission. It is inherent with membership that we offer them services. They EXPECT their association to advise them of opportunities. Please re-think this onerous ruling!